Believing Is Seeing
MIGUEL DULICK

We celebrate Easter on the first Sunday after the first full moon of spring, which is also the first Sunday after Passover. The whole history of the world comes to this point, and today's gospel catches the eternal thrill of that day. A desperate Mary Magdalen cannot find her Lord in the tomb. Thinking that his body has been stolen, she alerts the apostles. Peter and John go running, and a moment of unforgettable suspense follows as first Peter and then John enter the tomb. The details are significant. They saw the burial cloths there and "the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place" (John 20:7). Thieves would not have taken the time to unwrap the body and fold the face cloth. These details are intended to point to the truth of the resurrection. They saw and believed! The first reading from the Acts of the Apostles follows the story of the centurion Cornelius, the first prominent pagan convert. (His story is fascinating—take time to read it this week.) Peter gives a speech including a kind of catechism that had been standardized in a formula repeated at least six times in Acts. This proclamation, or kerygma, incorporates the message and the motivation for a change of life. God anointed Jesus, raised him from the dead, and promised that all who believe in him will be forgiven their sins and rise with him. Happy Easter!

Reflection: Why do I believe in the resurrection, and how does my belief impact my life?

Creer es Ver
MIGUEL DULICK

Celebramos la Pascua el primer domingo después de la primera luna llena de primavera, que también es la primera Domingo después de la Pascua. Toda la historia del mundo Llega a este punto, y el evangelio de hoy atrapa el la emoción eterna de ese día. Una María Magdalena desesperada no puede encontrar a su Señor en la tumba. Pensando que su El cuerpo ha sido robado, alerta a los apóstoles. Peter y John salen corriendo, y un momento inolvidable sigue la suspense cuando primero Peter y luego John entran en la tumba. Los detalles son significativos. Vieron el entierro paños allí y "la tela que le cubría la cabeza, No con las telas funerarias, sino enrolladas en otra lugar" (Juan 20:7). Los ladrones no habrían tomado El momento de desenvolver el cuerpo y doblar el paño de cara. Estos detalles pretenden señalar la verdad de la Resurrección. ¡Vieron y creyeron! La primera lectura de los Hechos de los Apóstoles es la siguiente la historia del centurión Cornelio, el primer destacado Converso pagano. (Su historia es fascinante—tómate tu tiempo para Lo leí esta semana.) Peter da un discurso que incluye un tipo amable de catecismo que había sido estandarizado en una fórmula repetido al menos seis veces en los Hechos. Esta proclamación, o Kerigma, incorpora el mensaje y la motivación para cambiar la vida. Dios unció a Jesús, lo resucitó de los muertos, y prometió que todos los que crean en él lo harían perdonad sus pecados y levántaos con él. ¡Feliz Pascua!

Reflexión: ¿Por qué creo en la resurrección y cómo afecta mi creencia a mi vida?
